"STRONG QUESTIONS."

Hartford Herald Asked to Explain Its Statements.

Filipinos and the Southern Negroes--Which Has Constitutional Freedom?

Render, Ky., Oct. 5 1904.
HARTFORD REPUBLICAN:

The Hartford Herald of the 5th inst., asks what it seems to consider some strong questions of governmental policy. Let us look at these questions candidly but briefly.

"Do the people of the United States want for the next four years a Constitutional government directed by a wise, sane, conservative man like Judge Parker or do they want a turbulent government run by a war lord whose sole idea is to have a great standing army and to pick a quarrel with any nation that dares to disturb the chip on his shoulder?" Will the Herald be a little specific? Will it not tell us whether it consists of the turbulency of the United States government? With what nation are we having trouble? We have fought only one war in recent years, viz: the Spanish-American war. Is the Herald now opposed to that war? It was the Herald's boast not long ago that the Democrats kicked the Republicans into the fight. But time, just a little time, works wonderful changes with a Democrat you know. How about the "great standing army?" Is it not a well-known fact of which even the Herald is apprised, that the standing army is to-day slightly below the actual requirement of the law?

The Herald continues, "shall we return to the Jefferson simplicity practiced under the Cleveland administration, or shall we re-elect Roosevelt and endorse the extravagance of the last four years, when more than two billion five hundred thousand dollars of the people's money were wasted in reckless expenditure?"

First, Do you indorse the Cleveland administration? It has not been long since you severely criticised Cleveland's administration of affairs and opposed his nomination when he was so strongly talked of only recently. Now as to "reckless expenditures," will you not tell us where you would begin the reform? Would you abandon irrigation and thus deprive thousands of farmers otherwise fertile and productive soil, or would you stop the rural free delivery service thus depriving about twelve million people from getting daily mail, or would you seek retrenchment by cutting down the pension role?

The people are anxious to know just how you propose to economize governmental expense anyhow; please be plain. You are so sure it ought to be done now tell us just how you will proceed. But I cannot take time to quote the Herald's other questions, however, I will notice them briefly.

The Herald is greatly exercised about the Filipinos. They must, or should, have their freedom at once. Was it not through the influence of W. J. Bryar, more than any other one man in the United States that Congress agreed to buy the Philippine Islands from Spain and pay her twenty million dollars for them? After all how are we to know the Herald is sincere in its averred interest in the Filipinos' freedom? The Filipino, let the Herald remember, is just a "nigger." Now let the Herald, which is so solicitous about the Filipino negro's freedom and about upholding the Constitution of the United States, tell candidly what it thinks about the freedom of the Southern negro here at home. Is the Herald as anxious to apply the Constitution to the negro here at home as it is abroad? If not, why not? The Filipino has more freedom already than the Democratic party accords the Southern negro. Will the Herald explain this fact?

The Herald wants the Tariff revised as promised by the Democratic platform. Will the Herald point out how a Republican Congress and a Democratic President would revise the Tariff if a Democratic President and a Democratic Congress could produce nothing better than that "compromise of dishonor," the Wilson Bill?

The memory of the people is better than the Democratic politicians would like to have it. When the Democrats talk of Tariff reform we are reminded of the Wilson Bill. When they talk of regulating the Trusts we are reminded of the Northern securities case. When they talk of giving the Filipinos freedom we are reminded of the worse than slavery of the Southern negro and we know who is responsible for it. When they condemn us for the Panama Canal treaty we remember that they boasted that the treaty could never have been ratified but for the help of the Democratic Senators. When we discussed expansion you dismissed the question by lightly answering, "We have expanded." In conclusion I wish to say to the Herald your party is doing the Trusts more harm than it ever would do them if put in power for you are at least squeezing a good campaign fund out of them.

As to the Democratic party in Kentucky remaining loyal to its record give yourself no uneasiness. A noted Democrat set the pace years ago in this State and the party has maintained it ever since. I refer to the late Hon. J. A. McKenzie, who said tie a string around a yellow (not a black, mind you) dog's neck and call him Democrat and he would vote for him in preference to a Republican. The only thing Mr. McKenzie was particular about was the color of the dog.

The Cash Grocery buys and sells for cash, that is why it is in the lead.

POLITICAL BUNCOMBE.

Pets Are Allowed Cash on Their Claims While Others Must Wait.

The fiscal court which is in session this week made a rule at the beginning of the term that all claims allowed at this time were to be paid out of the levy of 1905 or about a year from now. This seems to a pretty hard proposition to start with, but it is as fair for one as another if the rule had been maintained in whole. But as usual there are a few favorites who must be looked after. So on yesterday when the claim of Mr. Frank Felix was allowed the rule was suspended and an order made directing that his claim of about $100 for printing the delinquent list, the sheriff's statement and a few other small items in the Hartford Herald, be paid out of the levy of 1904, which is as same as cash.

The unjustness of such favoritism lies in the fact that a few pets are to have their money cash down while the rest must wait for a year before receiving theirs.

There are a few other claims allowed to other of the favored few with the cash proviso which were not reported.

People who have labored a few days on the public road at $1.50 per day for man and team; merchants who have furnished goods for prisoners and the inmate of the Alms House on the county's credit; doctors who have treated poor and destitute people for the county all must wait until the sheriff collects the taxes of next year for their money. But the favored of the Democratic majority composing the Fiscal court are to have their money cash in hand as soon as the court adjourns.

The Cash Grocery keeps constantly on hand a full supply of Lard, Bacon, Hams, Flour, Meal, Coffee, Sugar, Vegetables, &c. They will sell at low figures and treat you right. Give them a call.

EXONERATED.

Phil Hinton's Blow Was Not Cause of Father's Death.

Demise Charged to Dysentery and Son Freed From the Charge Of Murder.

Zeke Hinton, of Powers, Davies county, who was struck in the stomach by his son, Phil Hinton, Friday with a tobacco stick, died at 2 o'clock Sunday morning and the funeral took place that afternoon at 4 o'clock. A coroner's inquest returned a verdict that death was due to peritonitis, and that the blow struck by the son had nothing to do with the cause of his death.

The deceased was fifty years old. According to the information placed before the coroner he had been suffering from inflammation of the bowels for two weeks. However he was at work in the tobacco field Thursday and Friday. The report of the trouble between father and son was to the effect that the younger Hinton left the field and later returned with a quart of whisky. He asked his father to drink, and when the parent refused became enraged and threw a tobacco stick at him, the end of which struck him in the stomach.

It was announced soon afterward that the elder Hinton was fatally hurt and his death was expected until he passed away. There was considerable feeling among the neighbors and some threats against the son were heard.

Shortly after the death of the injured man an investigation was begun, and the result was the exoneration of young Hinton, the evidence submitted showing that death was due solely to dysentery and bowel inflammation, and that the blow from the tobacco stick was not a contributing cause. This finding disposed of the matter.

ENDS HIS OWN LIFE.

Roy Salmon Commits Suicide at Madisonville.

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 11.—Roy Salmon a prominent lawyer and Democratic politician, committed suicide in his office here this afternoon by blowing out his brains with a revolver. No cause for the act is known other than that he had not been in very good health for some months and had for the past week been partially confined to his room with chills. Circuit Court is in session, and Mr. Salmon had been in the court room most of the day attending to legal duties. He left about 4 o'clock and had a lengthy conversation with his brother, R. M. Salmon, President of the Crabtree Coal Company, of Illsley, on the street, and seemed to be in the best of spirits.

A few moments later he remarked to friends that he was going to end his life, but was not taken seriously. He then went alone to his office and shortly afterward inmates of other offices located on the same floor were alarmed by the report of a pistol. Forcing their way into his quarters they found him in a dying condition with a bullet hole through his head. He succumbed in a few minutes.

Johnston-White.

Mr. Wilbur Johnston, of Sulphur Springs, and Miss Minnie L. White, of Olaton, married at the bride's home on Wednesday, October 5, 1904, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. G. J. Bean spoke the words that made them husband and wife.

Miss Ethel Johnston, of Sulphur Springs, was the bridesmaid and Mr. C. W. White, of Olaton was best man.

Refreshments were served at the bride's home at 8:30 o'clock, and a very elegant dinner was prepared at the home of the groom's parents the following day.

The groom is a young man of accomplished attainments and has a charming disposition, and is to be congratulated upon his good fortune.

The bride is a young lady of rare culture and beauty, loved by all who know her, and carries sunshine to all she meets.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will visit relatives and friends for a few days and will then return to Sulphur Springs where they will make their future home.

We wish the groom and his bonny bride a long life and much happiness together.

TOO MUCH MOPHINE.

Virgil M. Porter Died Monday From Effects of Over-Dose of The Drug.

Virgil M. Porter, a well known timber dealer, of Morgantown, died from the effect of an overdose of morphine at the home of Joe Sanderfur, of the Sanderfur's Crossing neighborhood, about 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Porter came to Hartford Saturday to look at a body of timber near Hartford and spent the night with Mr. Sanderfur, occupying a room with another man, who noticed that he took two doses of some powders during the night. Sunday morning when Mr. Sanderfur went to call him to breakfast he could not be aroused, and it soon became evident that he was suffering from the effects of an opiate and physicians were called. Constant effort was made to restore him to consciousness, but proved futile.

Porter formerly lived at Cromwell and is well known throughout the county. He moved to Morgantown about three years ago. When a young man, Porter drank heavily, but several years ago gave it up. It is said that he gradually fell into the habit of using morphine and that for some time past he had been practically a morphine fiend.

The deceased is survived by a widow and four children. His wife was telephoned and reached Sanderfur's before Mr. Porter died.

The Cash Grocery has just received a nice line of Fruits.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

There have been 13,376,456 admissions to the World's Fair grounds since the opening of the exposition.

Fifteen deaths in eight days in New York have been attributed to impure liquor and the Coroner's officials are investigating.

On account of the drouth the water company at Harrodsburg has shut off all the water supply except for fire purposes. Farmers are compelled to haul water for stock many miles.

At the conclusion of the war between Russia and Japan and the consequent reopening of the Chinese questions, the International Reform Bureau will institute a proposal to induce Great Britain to revoke the opium treaty.

On account of the scarcity of good corn, the Kentucky distilleries will not open their plants until late this year and it is believed that general operations in the State will not begin before the new crop of corn is matured, which will delay the season until January 1.

In an address to students of the University, of Chicago, President Harper declared that in fifty years not a single religious problem of any importance had been solved by the theological seminaries of the United States. He says that they are too much occupied with denominational questions.

First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne has been appointed Postmaster General to succeed Postmaster General Payne, deceased. The appointment is temporary, and it is thought Mr. Wynne will be succeeded about January 1 by George B. Corbelyou, chairman of Republican National Committee.

PRESIDENT COMMERCIAL CLUB,

OF LOUISIANA, SAYS:

"THERE IS NO FINER MEDICINE THAN PE-RU-NA."

Suffered With Kidney and Liver Trouble for Twelve Years—Pe-ru-na Cured Him—Feels Better Than for Twenty Years.

Hon. William Watson Washburn, President of the Louisiana Commercial Club, and a very well known man of New Orleans, La., writes from 637 Canal street:

"I am satisfied that there is not a finer medicine placed before the public to-day than Peruna. I have been troubled for nearly twelve years with kidney and liver trouble, and at times I have been a pretty sick man, unable to attend to my duties. I had about made up my mind that no medicine could help me, when one of your booklets was brought to my office which I read in a leisure hour. I then decided to give Peruna a trial and found that I had at last secured the right medicine for me. For two months I used it faithfully and then felt so well I was like a young man once more. This was over a year ago and I have not had any trouble since. Although I am in the seventies I feel better and more active than I did thirty years ago."

W. W. Washburn.

Most derangements of the kidneys are due to catarrh of the kidneys. Peruna is a catarrh remedy. This explains why it is that Peruna cures a great number of kidney diseases in which the usual remedies fail.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

SOUTHERN OLIGARCHY

Spirit of the Constitution Violated—Voters' Rights Destroyed in Centralized Power.

John Sharp Williams in Congress on 1,433 Votes—Speaker Cannon Has 22,941—Some Facts.

It has been asserted that the Republican platform in demanding that representation in congress and in the electoral colleges be reduced in states where the elective franchise has been limited by special discriminations is raising the race question. This is not true. The platform does not touch the race question. The clause in question has to do with a more vital and important matter, the equality of voters.

The constitution of the United States, Article I, Section II, 3, defines the basis of representation as follows:

"Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this Union according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons."

According to the fourteenth amendment:

"Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed."

Now, obviously if by some such plan as the wholesale disfranchisement of a certain class of the population the entire population of a state, voting and non-voting, can be made to count in the representation of that state in congress, while other states are there represented in proportion to their number of voters, there is an inequality which tends toward the establishment of just such an oligarchy as existed in the antebellum congress, only instead of counting three-fifths of a large non-voting population certain southern states now count the whole. Moreover, their representation is vested in men who are committed to a policy not only Democratic, but essentially local and in many respects directly antagonistic to the interests not only of northern Republicans, but of northern Democrats as well. The perception of a similar condition of things made the "war Democrat" of forty years ago. Under the present Mississippi constitution one voter in Mississippi equals ten in Connecticut, ten in Ohio, twelve in Massachusetts, sixteen in California, seventeen in Iowa and twenty-nine in New York. How do you like that, citizens?

Let us look at the matter in detail. John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader of the house, was asked some time ago whether he would accept the nomination for president. He said: "My nomination would no sooner be announced than it would be heralded far and wide that my platform consisted of the constitution of Mississippi and the amendments thereto."

Mr. Williams knew he could never win on that platform. He was elected to the Fifty-eighth congress without opposition, receiving 1,433 votes, his district, the Eighth Mississippi, having a population of 130,885. In the First district of Connecticut, having a population of 220,000, 15 per cent more than that of the Eighth Mississippi, E. Stevens Henry received 20,289 votes, and had that district been of the same size as Mr. Williams' district Mr. Henry must have had 17,642 votes to secure election—more than ten times as many as it took to elect the Democratic leader of the house. Moreover, in opposition to Mr. Henry, 17,211 votes were cast for William O'Neil, Democrat, 392 for Edward Agard, Republican, 708 for Jameson, Socialist, and 144 for Joseph S. Powell, Socialist Labor. More than ten times as many votes were cast in Connecticut as were cast in Mississippi for a winning candidate. The scattering vote amounted altogether to 1,244 votes of the total vote in the Eighth Mississippi district, for Williams was without opposition. If this scattering vote had united for the Socialist candidate, and all the other voters in the First Connecticut district had been disfranchised, that candidate would have been elected in conditions very nearly corresponding, so far as numbers are concerned, to the conditions of the Mississippi election which put Mr. Williams in the house of representatives. And Mr. Williams is arguing against disfranchisement on the ground that the Philippines are governed without representation.

In the Eighth New Jersey district Representative Wiley was elected by 75,314 votes against 12,905 Democratic votes out of a population of 181,947. It took thirteen votes in this New Jersey district, which is smaller than that of Representative Williams, to elect a congressman opposed by a vote two-thirds as large as his own. To be elected unanimously he would have to receive more than twenty votes to Mr. Williams' one. Is one Mississippian equal to more than a score of Jersey-men at the polls?

Mr. Cannon, the speaker of the house, received 22,941 votes in a district whose population is 209,223, and he was opposed by a Democratic vote of 15,254 and a Prohibitionist vote of 1,166. More than ten times as many Democratic votes were cast against Cannon in Illinois as for Williams in Mississippi.

Quotations From Roosevelt's Letter of Acceptance.

"It is difficult to find out from the utterances of our opponents what are the real issues upon which they propose to wage this campaign. It is not unfair to say that, having abandoned most of the principles upon which they have insisted during the last eight years, they now seem at a loss both as to what it is that they really believe and as to how firmly they shall assert their belief in any thing."

"We do not have to guess at our own convictions, and then correct the guess if it seems unpopular. The principles which we profess are those in which we believe with heart and soul and strength. * * * The policies we have pursued are those which we earnestly hold as essential to the national welfare and repute. * * * We intend in the future to carry on the government in the same way that we have carried it on in the past."

"We are content to rest our case before the American people upon the fact that to adherence to a lofty ideal we have added proved governmental efficiency. Therefore, our promises may surely be trusted as regards any issue that is now before the people; and we may equally be trusted to deal with any problem which may hereafter arise."

"Our opponents can criticize what we did in Panama only on condition of mistating what was done. The administration behaved throughout not only with good faith, but with extraordinary patience and large generosity toward those with whom it dealt. It was also mindful of American interests. It acted in strict compliance with the law passed by Congress."

"The President's duty is to serve the country in accordance with the Constitution, and I should be derelict in my duty if I used a false construction of the Constitution as a shield for weakness and timidity, or as an excuse for governmental impotence."

"To what phase of our foreign policy and to what use of the navy do our opponents object? Our foreign policy has been not only highly advantageous to the United States, but hardly less advantageous to the world as a whole. Peace and good will have followed in its footsteps. The government has shown itself no less anxious to respect the rights of others than insistent that the rights of Americans be respected in return. As for the navy, it has been and is now the most potent guarantee of peace, and it is such chiefly because it is formidable and ready for use."

"On some of the vital questions that have confronted the American people in the last decade our opponents take the position that silence is the best possible way to convey their views."

"Being unable to agree among themselves as to whether the gold standard is a curse or a blessing, and as to whether we ought or ought not to have free and unlimited coinage of silver, they have apparently thought it expedient to avoid any commitment on these subjects and individually each to follow his particular bent."

"This government is based upon the fundamental idea that each man, no matter what his occupation, his race or his religious belief, is entitled to be treated on his worth as a man, and neither favored nor discriminated against because of any accident in his position."

"Of course, if our opponents are not sincere in their proposal to abolish the system of a protective tariff, there is no use in arguing the matter at all, save by pointing out again that if on one great issue they do not mean what they say, it is hardly safe to trust them on any other issue. But if they are sincere in this matter, then their advent to power would mean domestic misfortune and misery as wide-spread and far reaching as that which we saw years ago."

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. "The minister was a good man, a sincere man, a really eloquent man; but he had an unfortunate habit of blowing. He bellowed like a bull. His voice shook the rafters. The sound overwhelmed the sense, and it was often impossible, for very noise, to get at the man's meaning."

"He was especially loud during the prayer. I never heard such an uproar as filled the little building while this Southern minister prayed. After he was through a little girl on my left gave a sign of relief, and I heard her whisper to her father:

"Father, don't you think that if he lived nearer to God he wouldn't have to talk so loud?"

ROOSEVELT, prosperity and progress against Parker and parsimony, should be the slogan of the campaign.

GROVER CLEVELAND announces that he will not take the stump during this campaign. He probably prefers a duck hunt to a wild-geese chase.

The latest advice is that Candidate Parker and John Sharp Williams are preparing an expurgated edition of the Constitution to be used as a campaign document.

Ask your Democratic neighbor if he favors a re-occurrence of the depressing days of 1894, when the policies of government for which Candidate Parker stands were in vogue.

The Panama Canal issue raised by Democrat leaders has proven to be a boomerang of the worst type. The people favor the canal and commend President Roosevelt for making it possible.

Eight years ago and again four years ago Democratic orators were warning the people that the nation would go to swift and sure ruin if the gold standard was established as a fixed policy of the government. How about it now? And how about a party whose every prediction has proven as fallacious?

The Hartford Herald says we lied when we said: "Candidate Parker is opposed to the enactment of any more anti-Trust laws." We have

Mr. Parker's signed statement to back our assertion. He said in his letter accepting the nomination that the common law is sufficient to govern the trusts. If the common law is sufficient it must unquestionably follow that he is opposed to the enactment of any more anti-Trust laws. He is certainly opposed to the enactment of unnecessary laws. Now who's lied?

THE Hartford Herald in its characteristic way puts the following fatuous question to its readers:

What do the religiously inclined men of the country—those who have deep religious convictions, but who still think it their privilege and duty to vote—think of President Roosevelt's pet phrase of "stand pat"? Do they know what this phrase means and where it originated?

All intelligent people who care to know are well advised as to what the President meant when he used the phrase, if he did so. He stands on his record and so informed the public before he was nominated. Can the Herald and its Presidential candidate say as much? The Herald's attempt to appeal to people through religious channels is preposterous. President Roosevelt is a devoted Christian and worships regularly at his chosen church.

IN LAST week's Republican we published an article in which it was said that Candidate Parker had declared that $1.00 per day was enough for common laborers. In response to the statement the Hartford Herald says:

Will "Somebody" please tell us when, where and on what occasion Judge Parker ever advocated any such theory?

Yes, brother, we will tell you the very thing you pretend to want to know. It was about two years ago, in Emory Freer's grocery store, in Parker's home town, Rosemount, while talking in ordinary conversation with Emory Freer, Sam Mott and Carl Wismer and others. Here are Parker's exact words: "I think that a dollar a day is enough for any man provided that his work is steady. Any man can live on that, and that is all unskilled labor is worth. I am sorry I have to pay more than that and wouldn't if we had a better supply of labor hereabouts." Now you have it. Cast it into your mental cranium, give it thorough mastication, pass it on into your mental stomach and see if you can digest it.

THE HERALD AND THE TRUSTS.

The trusts seem to give the Hartford Herald a great deal of concern. Let us examine the trust question judiciously. Judge Parker, in his speech accepting the Democratic nomination for President, said that the common law was all the anti-trust law that was needed, which, in effect, means that he will oppose any further legislation for the regulation of the trusts. It is the boast of Democracy and Democratic leaders that their campaign is financed this year by the trusts.

The Standard Oil Company, whose avaricious hand affects the whole people, taking from each individual a few cents more than an equitable price for the oil which lights their homes, is paying largely for the thousands of Democratic campaign documents that flood the country. Not only this, the American Tobacco Company, which fixes the price of every pound of tobacco produced by the farmers of the country, is ardently supporting Parker. These, together with various other mammoth corporations have contributed to the boasted $5,000,000 campaign fund behind Parker. August Belmont, the head of the greatest railroad system in the United States, is one of the chief advisory managers of the Parker campaign.

They have even gone to the extent of nominating a trust magnate for Vice President. Mr. Davis is almost the sole proprietor of the vast mining interest in West Virginia, and counts his paltry dollars by the millions.

The Royal Month and the Royal Disease.

Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula—its bunches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of the bodily substance—without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative, consumption.

Attend the Flag Raising at Baizetown tomorrow. Dr. Ben L. Bruner, a candidate for Congress, Col. C. M. Barnett, Hon. N. T. Howard, M. L. Heavrin and Judge R. R. Wedding will make true Republican speeches.

Rheumatism

Is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains, inflamed joints and stiff muscles,—but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine

Hood's Sarsaparilla which has permanently cured thousands of cases.

For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Rheumatism, No. 7. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

SAM BACH, - Hartford

FOR UNIVERSAL PEACE

President Roosevelt to Act First.
Will Call Conference of Nations at The Hague.

Interparliamentary Union Meets the "Strong Man of Peace"
In Washington.

Gentlemen of the Interparliamentary Union—I greet you with profound pleasure as representatives in a special sense of the great international movement for peace and good will among the nations of the earth. It is a matter of gratification to all Americans that we have had the honor of receiving you here as the nation's guests. You are men skilled in the practical work of government in your several countries, and this fact adds weight to your championship of the cause of international justice. I thank you for your kind allusions to what the government of the United States has accomplished for the policies you have at heart, and I assure you that this government's attitude will continue unchanged in reference thereto. We are even now taking steps to secure arbitration treaties with all other governments which are willing to enter into them with us.

In response to your resolutions I shall at an early date ask the other nations to join in a second congress at The Hague. [Applause.] I feel, as I am sure you do, that our efforts should take the shape of pushing forward the work already begun at The Hague and that whatever is now done should appear not as something divergent therefrom, but as a continuance thereof.

Time to Advance the Work.
At the first conference at The Hague several questions were left unsettled, and it was expressly provided that there should be a second conference. A reasonable time has elapsed, and I feel that your body has shown sound judgment in concluding that a second conference should now be called to carry some steps further toward completion of the work of the first. It would be visionary to expect too immediate success for the great cause you are championing, but very substantial progress can be made if we strive with resolution and good sense toward the goal of securing among the nations of the earth, as among the individuals of each nation, a just sense of responsibility in each toward others and a just recognition in each of the rights of others. The right and the responsibility must go hand in hand. Our efforts must be unceasing both to secure in each nation full acknowledgment of the rights of others and to bring about in each nation an ever growing sense of its own responsibilities.

At an early date I shall issue the call for the conference you request. [Applause.] I again greet you and bid you welcome in the name of the American people and wish you godspeed in your efforts for the common good of mankind.

A Farmer's Idea of Roosevelt.
David Rankin has the credit of being the most extensive individual farmer in the United States. He owns fourteen farms in Missouri which contain about 22,000 acres of land in all. He personally supervises the operations on all, aided by a resident foreman. In summer he employs as many as 700 hands in the field and uses from 200 to 250 horses for the various divisions of farm work. He raises corn by thousands of acres and in a single year has sold 8,000 hogs and 7,500 cattle of his own raising. Mr. Rankin stands six feet two without his boots on, weighs 180 pounds and began life as a poor boy. He resides at Tarkio, Mo., in the vicinity of his farm property. He writes to Leslie's Weekly:

I like Roosevelt because he is a Republican. I am a Republican farmer. We farmers are more interested in the tariff than anybody else. The manufacturers make our markets. Our only trouble under a Republican administration is to get men enough to do our work.
I like Roosevelt's "expansion" ideas. This Panama canal business is one of the biggest things this country ever undertook. It means larger opportunity for our young men. It will take some such man as Roosevelt to put it through. He has the "guts" to make it go. I like men that have "guts."
I like Roosevelt because he isn't afraid. Most men go wrong in politics because somebody has scared them. Wall street don't like Roosevelt because he doesn't scare. The labor unions, some of them, try to run things by scaring the men who ought to run them. They haven't scared Roosevelt, and they won't. I like men who don't "scare."

The Anti-Roosevelt Propaganda.

[From the Baltimore News.]
Mr. Roosevelt is neither a Gooey III, nor a rowdy, nor a fool, and to talk as though he were any of these things is the very best way to produce in the minds of the very men it is essential to influence in this campaign the impression that the whole anti-Roosevelt campaign is a case of hysterical hue and cry. * * * Extravagance of denunciation for the sake of the anti-Roosevelt propaganda.

The Old Story.

[From the Hartford Courant.]
This theory that Theodore Roosevelt is a bad and dangerous man is merely a new application of the usual Democratic method. The established Democratic formula for forty years has been to "view with alarm." Sometimes it is this thing that is viewed, and sometimes it is that, but the alarm is constant. This year it is Roosevelt who is so viewed. Lincoln was so viewed in his immortal day. The real question, however, as to how the Democratic party and its candidate of unexpressed opinions would manage the affairs of the United States remains unchanged.

When Is Success a Failure?

[Orison Sweet Marden, in Success.]
When you do not overtop your vocation when you are not greater as a man than as a lawyer, a merchant, a physician, or a scientist.

When you are not a cleaner, finer, larger man on account of your life-work.

When you have lost on your way up to your fortune your self-respect, your courage, your self-control, or any other quality of manhood.

When it has made conscience an accuser, and shut the sunlight out of your life.

When the attainment of your ambition has blighted the aspirations and crushed the hopes of others.

When your highest brain cells have been crowded out of business by greed.

When all sympathy has been crushed out of your nature by your selfish devotion to your vocation.

When you plead that you never had time to cultivate your friendships, politeness or good manners.

When you have lived a double life and have practiced double-dealing.

When it brings you no message of culture, education, travel, or opportunities to help others.

When it dwarfs, cramps or interferes with another's rights: when it blinds you to the interest of the market at the other end of the bargain.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded and germs are roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes each injury to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.

In a Bowery Restaurant.

Henry Ward Beecher was amused when he went into a Bowery restaurant on one occasion and heard the waiter give such orders to the cook as "Sinkers and cow!" etc.

"Watch me give that waiter an order which I believe he won't abbreviate," remarked Beecher at length as the waiter approached. Then he said:

"Give me poached eggs on toast for two, with the yolks broken."

"But the waiter, equal to the emergency, walked to the end of the room and yelled:

"Adam and Eve on a raft! Wreck 'em!"

It is related that Dr. Beecher nearly fainted.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opinion or other harmful substance and many be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

"Say, old fellow! I'm in a big rush with this. Won't you take the girl's place at the typewriter while she goes to lunch?"

"But I don't know this keyboard."

"Oh, that'll be all right. This is an Illinois-French-Canadian dialect poem I'm working on."—Judge.

EFFECT OF EVIL TEMPER.

The Man or Woman Who is Swayed by Passion is Bound to Be a Loser Always.

One of the most desirable things in life is for every person to learn to control his temper. There is seldom anything to gain, but rather everything to lose, when one permits himself to be swayed by passion under any circumstances. It is thus that friends are lost, enemies made, bad situations aggregated, endless misery created and occasionally, the direct tragedies enacted. Of course there are times when one may derive from the moment a certain enjoyment in license of expressing exactly what he feels, but most surely must it be followed by a reaction of regret. Indeed, if a serious person, the probability is that on becoming calm again, after the fit has passed away he will be ashamed of his foolish conduct and the disgraceful exhibition he made of himself; he will realize, down in his heart, that not right away, if ever again, can he occupy a strong position, socially, as before the outburst. In truth, having behaved like a fretful, peevish child, he has to a certain extent forfeited his title to manhood and the place of a man. More lamentable still, a fiery tempered woman who makes herself disgusting and hated in a neighborhood, in society or in public, is a terror to her family. There are few things sadder to contemplate than the skeletons hidden in the household closet. To live thus from day to day is like having the finest gardens and vineyards located on the slope of a volcano, and never know when the burning lava may pour through them. When because of the uncertainty of domestic life one exists in dread as to what the next hour may bring forth, he or she is really to be pitied.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and side, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Z. Wayne Griffin & Bros' drug store.

PLAN FOR 1908, NOT 1904.

Intimations Regarding the Radicals at National Headquarters.

[New York Tribune.]
There are indications at Democratic national headquarters that the Bryan men who are taking an active part there are devoting more time to planning for control of the party organization for 1908 than to helping the present hopeful campaign of Park-r and D-via.

One Western Democratic Congressman said yesterday: "The men who believed with Bryan in 1896 and 1900—the larger number of them—have not changed their minds. They are now merely proceeding on the assumption that the paramount issue of this campaign is the election of Judge Parker and when they are in control of the government they will be in a position to enforce their policies. And if the party fails in his election the logical candidate will be William Jennings Bryan."

This statement is more frank, but not more significant than others that have emanated from Bryan men recently. "It is too much," said one Bryan man who is a temporary occupant of the Parker land wagon, "to expect 500,000 voters to renounce their convictions of four and eight years ago and 'bout face' merely at the behest of the money power of Wall street. It is not logical to assume that they will do it."

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant, of Christman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which falls of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me."

WOMEN DO THE PROPOSING

In the Island of Torres Strait the Girls go Courting and Also Pop the Question.

How would you like to live in a land where the women have the privilege to propose not only one year out of every four but every year?

In Torres strait, between the northern extremity of Australia and the southern extremity of New Guinea, there is a labyrinth of small islands and coral reefs, so complicated and dangerous, it is said, that Torres, the original discoverer, required three months to get through.

These islands are inhabited by a Melanetan race of the Paupuan type inhabiting New Guinea, among whom it is not only permissible but obligatory for women to propose. In fact Prof. Haddon, who first visited the island and made a careful study of the customs of the island, says that among them it is considered as bad taste for a man to make a proposal of marriage as it is for a woman among us to propose to a man.

On the island of Tud, when a boy grows into manhood, one of the lessons his parents are careful to teach him is: "You no like girl first. If you do girls laugh and call you woman."

The way in which a young woman opens and conducts a courtship with the man for whom she has taken a fancy differs widely from the most approved methods adopted by the leap year girl in America. When the island maiden becomes enamored she sends a piece of string to the sister of the man she covets which is a sign that she loves him. The sister then says to her brother: "Brother, I have good news for you. A woman loves you." He asks who the woman is, and if willing to go on with the affair, tells his sister to ask the girl to keep an appointment with him at some designated spot. At the appointed time they meet and talk the matter over. The betrothal often is made at the first meeting if both parties are satisfied.

When a man and a woman begin to "keep company," he is branded on the back with charcoal, while her mark is cut into the skin, because she "asked the man." They are expected to get married, but if they don't, nothing can be done. If it is the man who is unwilling he is given a sound thrashing by the girl's father and friends.

After marriage, in spite of the fact that the girl did the proposing she becomes the property of her husband. She even is so completely in his power that he can, if she should offend him kill her with impunity.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salve you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures Burns, Sores, Bruises, Cuts, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bros., Druggist.

Not Blessed.

Mr. Davis has just accepted the nomination by letter.

"But," said the Campaign Committee, "doesn't the old fool know that it is more blessed to give than to receive?"

For diligent search revealed the fact that he carelessly neglected to inclose a check.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion.

Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by all druggists.

The Lead Pencil Evil.

(Medical talk.)

One practical lesson that ought to be taught in every school is that a lead pencil should never be put in the mouth.

More important than the study of algebra, the study of Greek and Latin the study of rhetoric or the study of literature, is the lesson that a lead pencil should be never stuck in the mouth. Nearly every scholar has this habit and a very pernicious habit it is.

If the school teacher would insist upon this as a rule and correct every child that has this filthy habit it could be broken up. People who have passed through schools and have formed the habit of putting the pencil to the lips every time it is used are beyond hope. But with the children something could be done.

The pencil does not write so well after it has been wet as before, but there seems to be a notion that in order to make the pencil write, it must be moistened with the lips. This is not true. Probably everybody knows it is not true. In public places, people who are very squeamish, ordinarily, will pick up a pencil that has been used by hundreds of other people, and the first thing they do is to put it in the mouth.

It is a habit that ought to be broken up. Every school teacher should take up the crusade. Pupils should be told frequently never to put the pencil in the mouth. When caught doing it, some sort of punishment should be inflicted upon them until they get it into their heads that the practice is ridiculous and dangerous to health. While the graphite that composes the so-called lead of the pencil is not of itself a very harmless substance to be taken into the mouth yet the point of the pencil is necessary dirty.

Those people who are so afraid of microbes ought to remember that no better carrier of microbes exists than a lead pencil that has been sucked by Tom, Dick and Harry.

One of the surest signs of a weak heart is shortness of breath after exercise.

Your heart is not able to pump the blood fast enough to your lungs.

Some of the other symptoms of Heart Trouble are: Pains in the Side, Back and Shoulder; Fainting or Weak Spells; Dry Cough; Swelling of Feet and Ankles; Cold Feet or Hands.

No one can afford to allow a weak heart to go without medicine, because weak heart means poor circulation, and poor circulation means weak lungs, stomach, liver, kidneys, etc.

If, therefore, you suspect heart trouble, begin taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. The Heart Cure will do you good, as it is a splendid tonic for the blood and nerves, and will revitalize your entire system.

Finally, remember, Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold under a guarantee that the first bottle will do you good.

If it doesn't—your money back.

"I was afflicted with heart trouble for three years. I would be apparently all right, and without a moment's warning would fall as though shot. The attacks were frequent, and a terrible dread possessed me, as I never knew when or where, nor under what conditions I would be attacked, and whether I would survive them. I consulted and was treated by some of the most eminent physicians of the state. Not finding relief from this source, I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and began to improve at once. I used ten bottles, which entirely cured me, as I have not had an attack for five years."—MRS. JOHN DREBACK, Lehigh, O.
